Background Information:

Terry Sailor was a long-time Syracuse resident who loved golf. He also enjoyed bowling, playing pool, or any number of other sports. Terry was a polio survivor and lost the use of his left arm early in life. That didn’t stop Terry! He loved people, and especially enjoyed working with younger kids. He coached, mentored, and loved watching SDA sporting events. Terry passed away in 2018. This scholarship honors his memory.
